ATLANTA CAMPERVAN RENTALS

At first glance, Atlanta might not be the most obvious destination for starting off a campervan road trip. But we beg to differ! If you're flying in, the large international airport makes our Atlanta depot highly accessible from all over the world. It's only 3.5 hours from Great Smoky Mountains National Park, the most-visited national park in the United States. Plus, it's a hub for cultural, historical, and musical sights and experiences—not to mention cuisine (southern BBQ, anyone?).

We have been working hard to get our newest depot up and running. We can only offer round-trip bookings out of our Vancouver location, meaning your trip must both begin and end at the Vancouver depot. Supplemental Liability Insurance cannot be offered on Vancouver rentals. However, the minimum liability insurance provided for rental vehicles in Canada covers $1,000,000 CAD worth of third-party damage (a much higher number than minimum liability insurance provided in the USA).
